In 2017, the Ricketts family created Marquee Sports & Entertainment, now Marquee 360, to be the exclusive source for partnerships, consulting, sales, meetings and events and experiential opportunities across one of the most powerful properties in sports and entertainment. A separate entity from the Chicago Cubs, the agency boasts a wide portfolio of assets to deliver innovative, scalable and tailored solutions for clients inside and outside Wrigley Field, including the Park at Wrigley, Hotel Zachary, Wrigley Rooftops and American Airlines Conference Center.

The goal is to help partners authentically engage with their customers and intersect their brands with music, sports and entertainment. Marquee Sports & Entertainment's name derives from the iconic and world-famous Wrigley Field Marquee that has adorned the main entrance since 1934.

CUBS OWNERSHIP HISTORY

On October 6, 2009, Major League Baseball owners unanimously approved the sale of the Chicago Cubs National League Baseball Club, Wrigley Field and 25-percent interest of Comcast SportsNet (CSN) to the Ricketts family.

When the transaction closed October 27, 2009, the Ricketts family became only the eighth owner of the Chicago Cubs since the franchise's inception 133 years prior in 1876 when William A. Hulbert began as the club's first owner. Prior to the Ricketts family, the Cubs had only two owners in the last 90 years, including 62 years of family ownership starting in 1919 when William Wrigley, Jr. purchased the franchise. In 1932, Philip K. Wrigley took control upon his father's death. In 1977, William Wrigley took over the club following the passing of his father, Philip, before selling to the Tribune Company four years later in 1981.

Below is a complete list of Chicago Cubs owners prior to the Ricketts family:

Year..... Owner

1876 .....William A. Hulbert ... owned the Chicago White Stockings and became one of eight charter members of the National League

1882 .....Albert Spalding and John Walsh ... Spalding — the former player, sporting goods tycoon and team president — and Walsh took over after the death of William A. Hulbert

1905 .....Charles Murphy ... Murphy's $125,000 purchase price was financed by Cincinnati Times-Star owner Charles Taft

1914 .....Charles Taft ... Taft bought the Cubs from Charles Murphy

1916 .....Charles Weeghman ... a team owner in the defunct Federal League, Weeghman and nine others purchased the Cubs from Taft and moved the club to Weeghman Park at the corner of Clark and Addison 1919 .....Wrigley family ... William Wrigley Jr. purchased control of the team from Weeghman and renamed Weeghman Park to Cubs Park. In 1926, the ballpark's name was changed to Wrigley Field. Philip K. Wrigley took over in 1932 and William Wrigley took control in 1977.

1981 .....The Tribune Company ... the Tribune's purchase of the Cubs and the Friendly Confines from the Wrigley family ended the longest continuous operation of a franchise by the same family in one city.

THEO EPSTEIN

PRESIDENT, BASEBALL OPERATIONS

Hall of Famers Pat Gillick (1992-93 Blue Jays, 2008 Phillies) and John Schuerholz (1985 Royals, 1995 Braves) won in each league, as has Dave Dombrowski (1997 Marlins, 2018 Red Sox) ... - © All but two of the 25 players on the Cubs' 2016 World Series-winning roster were acquired under Epstein, including 13 via trade ... the Cubs had the consensus top farm system in baseball in 2015 before winning the World Series in 2016.

  - Acquired OF Dexter Fowler from the Astros for RHP Dan Straily and 3B Luis Valbuena on January 19, 2015.
- © Epstein's first three first-round draft picks with the Cubs were all on the 2016 World Series roster: Albert Almora (2012), Kris Bryant (2013), and Kyle Schwarber (2014) ... the trio combined to set up the go-ahead run in the top of the 10th inning of Game 7 of the 2016 World Series when Schwarber singled and Almora pinch-ran, moved to second on Bryant's deep fly to center, and scored on Ben Zobrist's double.
- © In nine seasons as Red Sox GM (2003-11), his clubs made six postseason appearances, won 95 or more games six times, won 90 or more seven times, had 89 or more wins eight times, and played to a .575 winning percentage.

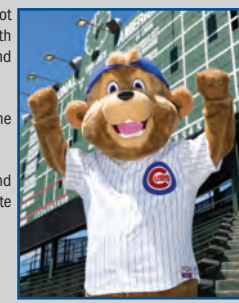
CLARK THE CUB



Clark was born loving the Cubs - it's in his blood! His great-grandbear Joa was once the original live bear mascot for the team back in the early 1900s. When Joa retired to the Lincoln Park Zoo, he delighted the young bears with hundreds of amazing Cubs stories, and Clark was hooked! He dreamed of making his great-grandbear proud and playing for the Cubs - even though he'd never even seen a game.

Then one day, Clark heard the roar of the crowd coming all the way from Wrigleyville. Determined to finally see the Cubs in person, he followed the sound to Wrigley Field, just in time to see the Cubs raise the W flag.

Inspired by Clark's enthusiasm and love of all things Cub, the team invited him to continue the family tradition and become their official mascot! Soon, he had his very own Clubhouse, and you can usually find him there. His favorite thing to do is hang out around the ballpark, keeping spirits high and kids excited!

Clark's Favorites
Favorite Color: Cubbie Blue
Favorite Vacation Spot: Mesa, Arizona
Favorite Movie: Rookie of the Year

CONSECUTIVE GAME STREAKS

A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if a player plays one-half inning on defense, or if he completes a time at-bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance does not extend a streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all a player's plate appearances result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or sacrifice bunt. The streak shall end if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

PINCH-HITTER DEFINITION

A player shall be considered a pinch-hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and then only on his first time at bat, which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around and a pinch-hitter comes up a second time in the inning in which he first appeared, he will not be considered a pinch hitter during that second time up.

GAME DEFINITIONS

Night Game: Any game scheduled to start after 5 p.m. is considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at 5 p.m. and is delayed by rain or for any other reason, it is considered a day game. If a game is scheduled to start at 5:01 p.m., it is considered a night game.

Twi-Night Doubleheaders: Any twi-night doubleheader scheduled to start after 4 p.m. is considered two night games. If a twi-night doubleheader begins before 4 p.m., both contests are considered day games.

Tie Game: A regulation game that is called by the umpire-in-chief when both teams have the same number of runs is a tie game. Player performances are official and are entered in the records, but the game does not count in the league standings and may be rescheduled at a later date.

Suspended Game: A game becomes a suspended game if it has progressed far enough (4 1/2 or 5 innings) to be an official game and is stopped because of (1) a curfew imposed by law, or (2) a pre-arranged time limit, or (3) darkness when a local law prohibits turning on the lights or when lights are not available.

2012: Acquired by Cubs 7/31 with INF Christian Villanueva for P Ryan Dempster
2017: On disabled list 6/5-7/24 ... tendinitis in right hand ... included injury rehab assignment at Tennessee (7/10-17)

30 IS THE MAGIC NUMBER

The Cubs have had four starting pitchers make 30 or more starts in a season just six times since 1901, including in 2015 and 2016 when Jake Arrieta, Jon Lester, Kyle Hendricks and Jason Hammel all reached the 30-start plateau. The Cubs have made the playoffs each of the last four seasons in which they have had four pitchers make 30 starts, as they also accomplished the feat in 2003 and 2007. The club also had four starters reach 30 starts in 1975 and 1977.

KEEPING THE ROTATION TOGETHER

The Cubs utilized as few as seven starters in a campaign as recently as 2004, when the only pitchers to start for the club were Matt Clement, Greg Maddux, Sergio Mitre, Mark Prior, Glendon Rusch, Kerry Wood and Carlos Zambrano.

Since 1900, the club mark for fewest starters in a season is six – set in 1901. During the 19th century, the team utilized as few as two starters in four seasons, most recently during a 98-game 1883 campaign (Larry Corcoran 53 starts, Fred Goldsmith 45 starts).

THE SANDBERG GAME

On June 23, 1984, Ryne Sandberg went 5-for-6 with two late-inning dramatic homers and seven RBI in the Cubs' 11-inning 12-11 victory over St. Louis.

Sandberg hit a solo homer off the Cardinals' Bruce Sutter in the bottom of the ninth inning to knot the game at 9-9. Then, after St. Louis tallied twice in the top of the 10th, Sandberg once again knotted the game – this time with a two-run shot off Sutter. Following his game-tying homers, the Cubs won it on Dave Owen's RBI single.

"The Sandberg Game" overshadowed the performance of the Cardinals' Willie McGee, who hit for the cycle.

DIGGING OUT OF A HOLE

No Cubs team has ever overcome being more than 10 games below the .500 mark to finish a campaign at .500 or above. The biggest turnaround was 10 games, accomplished in 1968. The 1968 club was 10 games under .500 twice, most recently on July 5 (35-45). That team finished the year at 84-78.

In 2007, the club was nine games below .500 at 22-31 and finished eight games above .500 at 85-77 to win the N.L. Central title.

HOOTON HOLLERIN'

The only Cubs draft selection to make his professional debut with the major league club was Burt Hooton – the club's 1st-round pick (and second overall selection) in the secondary phase of the June 1971 draft. Hooton made his debut on June 17, 1971, vs. Steve Carlton and the St. Louis Cardinals (and did not figure in the decision in the Cubs' 7-6 win) before being sent to the minors.

SAVE RULE

Rule 10.19 tells the official scorer to credit a pitcher with a save when:

(a) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his team, and; (b) he is not the winning pitcher, and; (c) he is credited with at least 1/3 of an inning pitched, and; (d) he qualifies under one of the following conditions: (1) he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least 1.0 inning, or; (2) he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or; (3) he pitches effectively for at least 3.0 innings.

When a relief pitcher enters a game in a save situation and departs or the game ends with the save situation no longer in effect because he has given up the lead, he is charged with a "blown save." If the save opportunity still exists when he leaves the game, he is not charged with a save opportunity.

If the pitcher has not given up the lead when he leaves the game, though the save opportunity may no longer exist because of added runs scored by his own team, he is not charged with a save opportunity.

TRIPLE PLAYS: LAST TIME IT HAPPENED

The Cubs have been involved in 77 triple plays since 1876, turning 40 and hitting into 37. The Cubs have hit into the last four triple plays they've been involved in (most recently September 14, 2014 at Pittsburgh — Matt Szczur hit into 5-4-3 triple play).

On May 10, 1997, in San Francisco, the Cubs turned their last triple play. The Giants' Stan Javier faced Amaury Telemaco in the fifth inning with Kirk Rueter on second base and Darryl Hamilton on first. Javier hit a fly ball to short center field, with second base umpire Bob Davidson invoking the infield fly rule. The ball dropped in, and both baserunners were thrown out attempting to advance (center fielder Brian McRae to third baseman Jose Hernandez to second baseman Ryne Sandberg).

The last triple play turned at Wrigley Field was by San Francisco on May 8, 1998 (first baseman Charlie Hayes to shortstop Rich Aurilia). The last time the Cubs turned a triple play at The Friendly Confines occurred June 2, 1983, vs. Pittsburgh — when Pirates pitcher Rick Rhoden hit into an around-the-horn triple killing (third baseman Ron Cey to second baseman Ryne Sandberg to first baseman Bill Buckner).

On May 30, 1927, shortstop Jimmy Cooney turned the only unassisted triple play in Cubs history. In the fourth inning of the Cubs' game in Pittsburgh, Cooney caught Paul Waner's line drive, stepped on second base to retire Lloyd Waner, then tagged Clyde Barnhart off first.

Zielinski was inducted into the Midwest Scouts Association Hall of Fame for career excellence on December 10, 2016, after he was named the organization's Scout of the Year during the club's annual scouting meetings the previous January. BEAR CUBS

The greatest number of players to make their major league debuts in one season for the Cubs is 20 — in 1902. The high number of youngsters that season was one of the primary reasons why the club was nicknamed the "Cubs." With the raid of National League players by American League teams, many N.L. clubs stocked their spring training rosters with young, unproven players. The Chicago Daily News, noting all the youngsters in the Chicago camp, used the nickname "Cubs" for the first time in its March 27, 1902 edition.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team. In 2017, Anthony Rizzo was honored as the league-wide recipient of the award, the first Cubs winner since Sammy Sosa in 1998. Rizzo was honored as the Cubs recipient of award in five-straight seasons from 2013-17, prior to Jon Lester receiving the honor in 2018.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award, sponsored by John Hancock Financial Services, recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Rob Manfred, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League Baseball Club. These local winners are announced in September during Roberto Clemente Day. The winner of the national Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pre-game ceremony at the World Series. Past winners include Craig Biggio, Clayton Kershaw, Jamie Moyer, Jim Thome, Curt Schilling, Al Leiter, Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Ozzie Smith, Cal Ripken, Jr., Albert Pujols, Derek Jeter, Andrew McCutchen and Curtis Granderson.

YOUNG AT HEART

The oldest player to play for the Cubs was Hoyt Wilhelm. Born in 1923, Wilhelm joined the Cubs in September 1970 – two months after his 47th birthday – and pitched in three games with the club.

The only players in their 40s to make Opening Day starts for the Cubs were first baseman Cap Anson (final season-opening start in 1895 at the age of 43), pitcher Dutch Leonard (40 in 1949) and third baseman Gary Gaetti (40 in 1999).

MAJOR LEAGUE WAIVER RULES

There are four types of waiver requests — Major League Waivers, Special Waivers, Outright Waivers and Unconditional Release Waivers.

Major League Waivers are necessary for any player assignment between major league clubs made from August 1 until the day after the close of the regular season. Waivers are not needed for Major League assignments during the rest of the year. The trading deadline in which waivers are not needed is July 31.

Special Waivers are irrevocable. They are required for a major league club to outright a player to a minor league club from September 1 until the 30th day of the following season.

Outright Waivers are irrevocable. They are required for a major league club to outright a player to a minor league club from the 31st day of the regular season until August 31.

Unconditional Release Waivers can be secured at any point during the year.

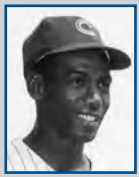
ERNIE BANKS — MR. CUB



For 19 seasons, Ernie Banks delighted Wrigley Field fans with his long home runs and cheerful disposition. He hit 512 home runs, surpassing the 40-roundtrippers mark five times. He hit 277 of his homers as a shortstop — a National League record. He also holds the N.L. single-season mark for homers by a shortstop (47 in 1958). The 14-time All-Star won the N.L. Most Valuable Player Award following both the 1958 and 1959 campaigns.

Banks, whose No. 14 flies from the left field foul pole at Wrigley Field, was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1977. He was voted to Major League Baseball's All-Century team in 1999.

Born on January 31, 1931 in Dallas, Texas, Banks played for the Cubs from 1953-71 and served as a coach from 1967-73. He made his major league debut September 17, 1953.

Following Whitey Lockman's ejection on May 8, 1973, coach Ernie Banks took over the reigns as acting manager becoming the first African-American to manage a major league team.

In 2008, Banks was honored by the Cubs with a statue at Wrigley Field, commemorating his illustrious career.

In 2013, Banks was presented with the Presidential Medal of Freedom, an award given to those who have made "an especially meritorious contribution to the security or national interests of the United States, world peace, cultural or other significant public or private endeavors." It is the highest civilian award of the United States.

Banks passed away on January 23, 2015 at the age of 83. The Cubs honored him throughout the 2015 campaign, including wearing a No. 14 patch on their uniforms and displaying a No. 14 logo behind home plate at Wrigley Field.

THERE'S NO PLACE LIKE HOME

The Cubs won 16 consecutive games Jon Lieber started at Wrigley Field from May 24, 2001-May 6, 2002. He had a personal 13-0 mark over the 16-start span.

The stretch is tied for the longest winning span for a pitcher at Wrigley Field since the ballpark was built in 1914. The club previously won 16-straight Lon Warneke starts May 27, 1932-April 18, 1933 (Warneke went 13-0 at home over the span).

The ballpark record for consecutive victories by an individual is 15, set by Bill Lee from September 7, 1935-August 26, 1936 (17 starts).

2019 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

ABOUT THE RECORD: The Chicago Cubs completed the 2019 regular season with an 84-78 (.519) record, finishing third in the N.L. Central Division, 7.0-games behind division leader St. Louis and snapping their franchise record streak of four-straight postseason appearances from 2015-18.

- Following play on August 8, the Cubs had a season-high 3.5-game lead in the N.L. Central division ... starting August 9 through Sept. 25 when the cubs were mathematically eliminated from the playoffs, Chicago went 19-24 (.442) while St. Louis went a major league-best 32-14 (.696) and Milwaukee went 28-14 (.667).
- The Cubs started the season 5-9 and 4.5-games back in the division before winning 20 of 25 games from April 15-May 14 to reach a 25-14 record with a 2.5-game lead in the division.
- Chicago emerged from the All-Star break by winning seven of their first eight games ... since the All-Star Game was first played in 1933, this was just the fourth time in franchise history the Cubs emerged from the All-Star break by winning seven of their first eight games, also done in 1933, 2007 and 2017.
- Chicago reached a season-high 14-games over .500 (82-68) following play on September 16, but lost its next nine games through September 26.
- The Cubs recorded a winning record for the fifth-consecutive season dating to 2015 ... that's the franchise's longest stretch since six-consecutive winning seasons from 1967-72.

HOME COOKING: Chicago finished its Wrigley Field schedule with a 51-30 (.630) record, and reached 51 wins at the Friendly Confines for just the 12th time since moving into the digs in 1916 ... Chicago's .630 home winning percentage ranked second in the N.L. (Dodgers, 59-22/.728) and sixth in the majors.

- Cubs pitching finished with a 3.50 ERA (289 ER/743.0 IP) in 81 home games, the third-lowest home ERA in the N.L. and fourth in the majors behind the Dodgers (2.28), Cardinals (3.30) and Rays (3.36).
- Kyle Hendricks posted a 2.04 ERA (21 ER/92.2 IP) in 14 home starts ... his home ERA ranked second-lowest in the majors behind the Dodgers' Hyun-Jin Ryu (1.93).
- Anthony Rizzo hit .354 (90-for-254) in 75 home games, the second-highest home batting average in the majors behind the Rockies Charlie Blackmon (.379) ... Rizzo's .459 home OBP led the majors.

THE LONG AND WINDING ROAD: The Cubs went 33-48 (.407) on the road, tied for the third-lowest winning percentage in the N.L. and tied for the seventh-lowest in the majors ... Chicago went winless in 12-consecutive road series (0-10-2) following its series win at the Nationals, May 17-19 ... that winless series streak was snapped in a series win against the Pirates, August 16-18 at PNC Park and Bowman Field.

HOMERS APLENTY: Chicago set a single-season franchise record with 256 home runs, surpassing the previous mark of 235 home runs in 2004 ... the team's 256 homers were second-most in the N.L. and sixth in the majors ... it marked the sixth time in franchise history the club reached the 200-homer mark.

- Chicago had five players reach 20 home runs, tied for the most in a single season (also done in 2007).
- The team had a stretch of 15-straight games with a home run from April 23-May 9 ... it was the team's longest single-season home run stretch since a run of 15-consecutive games with a home run, July 21-August 6, 2002.

HAVING A GRAND TIME: The Cubs hit a franchise-record 10 grand slams, leading the N.L. and ranking second in the majors (Houston, 11) ... the Cubs previously hit nine grand slams in 1929 ... eight different Cubs hit a grand slam, including two each from Anthony Rizzo and Kyle Schwarber.

CLOSE CALLS ABOUND: The Cubs played 46 one-run games, eighth-most in the N.L. and tied for 10th-most in the majors, going 19-27 (.413) in those contests ... the .413 winning percentage ranked second-lowest in the N.L. and fifth-lowest in the majors.

- Chicago was 29-45 (.392) in games decided by two or fewer runs ... the team was 55-33 (.625) in contests decided by three or more runs, the third-best mark in the N.L. and seventh in the majors.

IT TAKES A VILLAGE: The Cubs used 52 players in 2019 ... only twice has the team utilized more players in a season: 53 players in 2012 and 56 players in 2013 ... Chicago used 32 pitchers, a total surpassed by the 35 pitchers utilized in 2018.

- Twenty-one players made their Cubs debut in 2019, putting the all-time franchise total at 2,095 players in the club's N.L. history.

A RISPY PROPOSITION: Chicago batted .297 (103-for-347) with runners in scoring position from July 1-August 30 after starting the year hitting .243 (154-for-634) with RISP in its first 84 games.

- The team hit .259 (310-for-1,195) with RISP on the season, the ninth-best mark in the N.L.
- Javier Báez led the Cubs and ranked 10th in the N.L. with a .333 average (38-for-114) with RISP.

ALL-STAR CUBS: Javier Báez and Willson Contreras were elected by fans to start for the N.L. All-Star team in the Midsummer Classic for the second year in a row ... Kris Bryant was named as a reserve to the squad, his third career All-Star nod.

- Báez started the game at shortstop after he started the 2018 All-Star Game at second base ... he became the first player in major league history to start the All-Star Game at second base and shortstop in back-to-back seasons.
- Báez joins Bobby Grinch and Granny Hamner as the lone players to start an All-Star Game at both shortstop and second base at any point.
- Contreras became the first Cub catcher to start the All-Star Game in consecutive seasons since Gabby Hartnett in 1936-37 ... Contreras became the fourth N.L. catcher to start the game in consecutive seasons in the last 25 years, joining Buster Posey (2015-17), Yadier Molina (2009-10) and Mike Piazza (1994-99, 2001-02, 2004-05).

FLIPPING THE SCRIPT: The Cubs became the first team in 24 seasons to fall at least five games under .500 (1-6, 2-7, 3-8) only to reach at least six games over .500 (18-12) by the 30th game of the season ... prior to Chicago, the Reds turned the trick in 1995, starting 1-8 before reaching a 19-11 record through 30 games ... thanks to STATS, Inc.

MAKING SACRIFICES: Chicago set a franchise mark with four sacrifice flies in an 11-0 win, May 1 in Seattle.

JOE AT THE HELM: Joe Maddon posted a 471-339 (.581) regular season record in five seasons with Chicago ... his 471 victories rank fifth in franchise history, while his .581 winning percentage is second in franchise history (min. 162 games), behind only Cap Anson (1,282-932/.579).

- © Maddon led the Cubs to four-straight postseason appearances (2015-18), and his 19 postseason victories are a franchise record ... the Cubs made three-straight NLCS appearances (2015-17) and won the 2016 World Series.
- © The Cubs win, April 27 in Arizona, marked Joe Maddon's 400th Cubs managerial victory, and he reached the mark in his 674th regular season game at the helm ... only Frank Chance (594 games) and Cap Anson (606) reached 400 wins in fewer contests than Joe.
- © STATS Inc. reports that Maddon became the fastest manager to reach 400 wins with a team since Joe Torre with the Yankees from 1996-99.

WALK IT OFF: The Cubs had three walk-off homers in a five-game span for the first time in franchise history when they turned the trick, May 7-11.

- © May 7 vs. Miami, Kris Bryant hit a walk-off blast to give Chicago a 5-2 win ... the following day, Jason Heyward hit a walk-off to drop the Marlins, 3-2 in 11 innings ... May 11 vs. the Brewers, Willson Contreras hit a walk-off homer to give Chicago a 2-1, 15-inning victory.
- © Including Javier Báez's pinch-walk off single, May 21 vs. the Phillies, the Cubs walked off four times in eight home contests, from May 7-21.

PENMANSHIP: May 11 vs. the Brewers, the Cubs defeated the Brewers, 2-1 in 15 innings thanks, in part, to the bullpen combining to throw 8.0 shutout innings on just one hit, six walks and 12 strikeouts ... it marked the first time the Cubs bullpen tossed 8.0 or more shutout innings with one or fewer hits allowed since doing so September 2, 2003, vs. St. Louis in a 4-2, 15-inning win.

23-22-62 VISION: Javier Báez finished the "first half" with 23 doubles, 22 home runs and 62 RBI, only the second player in franchise history to reach those totals by the All-Star Break, joining Derrek Lee (27-27-72 in 2005) ... Báez joined Pittsburgh's Josh Bell and Atlanta's Freddie Freeman as the only three major leaguers to reach those totals in 2019.

SO IT'S BEEN A LONG JOURNEY FROM MILAN TO MINSK: Robel Garcia recorded four homers and two triples within his first 13 major league games, including a July 22 blast into McCovey Cove at Oracle Park in San Francisco ... he became the first Cub to reach four homers and two triples within his first 13 big league games since Mandy Brooks in 1925.

SCHWARB'S GRAND DAY: Kyle Schwarber, July 28 in Milwaukee, recorded his seventh career multi-homer game, his second career grand slam and set a career mark with seven RBI.

- © Schwarber became just the fifth Cub ever to hit a grand slam and three-run homer in the same game, joining Riggs Stephenson (July 1, 1929 @ STL), Ed Bailey (July 22, 1965 vs. PHI), Ron Santo (July 6, 1970 [gm. 2] vs. MON) and Derrek Lee (July 2, 2009 vs. MIL) ... thanks to Ed Hartig for his assistance.

DO NOT WALK: Cubs starting pitchers went six-straight games without issuing a walk, July 30-August 4, the longest streak by the team's starters since at least 1905 ... overall, Cubs starting pitchers went 149 batters without issuing a walk following José Quintana's free pass to Orlando Arcia in the fifth inning, July 28 at Milwaukee ... the streak ended with Kyle Hendricks' walk of Jurickson Profar to start the third inning, August 5 vs. Oakland.

A FINE OPENING MONTH: Nicholas Castellanos, acquired from Detroit minutes before the trade deadline, finished August with 11 homers for Chicago ... the 11 homers marked the most for any Cub in the month of August since Sammy Sosa hit 11 in August of 2002.

CAN'T SPELL K WITHOUT YU: Yu Darvish struck out 118 batters in 13 starts following the All-Star Break, the most by a Cub in the season's "second half" since Kerry Wood fanned 127 batters in 2002 ... he walked only seven batters, good for a 16.86 SO/BB ratio, the best mark in major league history after the All-Star Break.

- © On September 17 vs. Cincinnati, he set a Cubs single-game franchise-record with eight-consecutive strikeouts, beginning with a strikeout of pitcher Sonny Gray in the second inning.
- © Darvish finished the month of August with 42 strikeouts and only one walk ... according to Elias, Darvish became only the fourth pitcher since 1893, when the mound was set at its current distance, with at least 40 strikeouts and no more than one walk in a calendar month, joining Corey Kluber (41/1, May of 2018), Jeff Samardzija (49/1, May of 2017) and Cliff Lee (54/1, September of 2013).

UNDERWOOD OVERPOWERING: Making his season and Wrigley Field debut, August 6 vs. Oakland, Duane Underwood Jr. struck out all six batters he faced ... Elias notes that he became he first Cub pitcher since 1900 to face at least six batters in a game and strike out every batter ... the six-consecutive strikeouts tied the franchise record for a reliever in a single game, previously done by Juan Cruz (March 31, 2003 at Mets) and Bruce Sutter (September 8, 1977 vs. Montreal).

LITTLE LEAGUE CLASSIC: The Cubs and Pirates played the MLB Little League Classic at Bowman Field in Williamsport, Pa., August 18 ... the Cubs won the contest, 7-1, as José Quintana tossed 7.0 shutout innings while Nicholas Castellanos, Jason Heyward and Anthony Rizzo all homered.

- © The game marked Chicago's first at a neutral site since September 14-15, 2008, when the Cubs played the Houston Astros at Miller Park in Milwaukee due to Hurricane Ike ... prior to that, the Cubs and Expos met at Hiram Bithorn Stadium in San Juan, Puerto Rico for three games, September 9-11, 2003 ... March 29-30, 2000, the Cubs and Mets opened up the season at the Tokyo Dome in Japan.

THAT'S EFFICIENT: The Cubs defeated the Giants, 1-0, August 22 at Wrigley Field on just two hits, including a game-winning RBI single by Anthony Rizzo in the fourth inning (the other hit was a Jason Heyward single to start the frame, a ball lost in the sun by Kevin Pillar) ... it marked Chicago's first 1-0 win with two or fewer hits and no extra-base hits since july 13, 1936 vs. the New York Giants.

HISTORICALLY PRODUCTIVE SERIES: The Cubs scored 47 runs in a three-game set against the Pittsburgh Pirates at Wrigley Field, September 13-15, winning by scores of 17-8, 14-1 and 16-6 ... the 47 runs were the most scored by the team in a three-game series in over 125 years since plating 48 runs in a three-game set against the Pirates, July 23-25, 1894 at the West Side Grounds.

- © The previous team to score at least 14 runs in three-straight games was the 1993 Detroit Tigers ... the previous N.L. club to turn the trick was the 1930 Cubs.

UNDER THE LIGHTS

In 1988, the Cubs added a new dimension to already historic Wrigley Field — ballpark lights, allowing the club to play night games ... Chicago hosted the Phillies, August 8 of that season, in the first scheduled night game at Wrigley Field ... that game was rained out prior to five innings, so the first official night game at the Friendly Confines took place the following evening, August 9, against the Mets (a 6-4 Cubs win) ... here's a look at how the club has done under the Wrigley Field lights since 1988:

GRAND SLAM FACTS AND FIGURES

The Cubs have hit 333 grand slams in franchise history, including a single-season franchise record 10 in 2019 ... the 10 slams surpassed the nine the Cubs hit in 1929.

The 10 grand slams in 2019 came from eight players: Albert Almora Jr., Javier Báez, Kris Bryant, Willson Contreras, Taylor Davis, Ian Happ, Anthony Rizzo (2) and Kyle Schwarber (2).

The club's first grand slam was hit by pitcher Larry Corcoran on June 20, 1882, off Worcester's Lee Richmond at Chicago's Lakefront Park.

The only Cubs to hit more than two grand slams in one season are Ernie Banks (5 in 1955), Wildfire Schulte (4 in 1911) and Sammy Sosa (3 in 1998). Sosa hit grand slams in back-to-back games July 27-July 28 of that season, becoming the first Cub to accomplish that feat.

On June 3, 1987, the Cubs and Houston Astros combined to hit three grand slams — tying a major league single-game record. Two Cubs hit bases-loaded roundtrippers — Brian Dayett (off Bob Knepper) and Keith Moreland (off Julio Solano). Houston's Billy Hatcher hit a grand slam in the contest off Rick Sutcliffe.

On August 16, 1890, Chicago batters Tom Burns and Malachi Kittridge both connected for fifth-inning grand slams off Pittsburgh's Bill Phillips — for the franchise's only multiple grand slam inning.

CUBS PITCHING NOTES

The Cubs set a team mark in 2018 by utilizing 35 different pitchers.

The club mark for most left-handed pitchers to see mound action in a season is 11 – a figure reached in both 2018 and 2019 that surpassed 10 in 1999, 2000 and 2017.

The team mark for most strikeouts by a reliever is 11, set by Dave Hillman during a 7.2-inning relief stint May 28, 1959, against Los Angeles.

The last Cubs position player to take the mound for the Cubs was infielder Ben Zobrist, September 29, 2019 at St. Louis.

Since the advent of divisional play in 1969, only two Cubs have recorded saves in their major league debuts: Todd Wellemeyer (5/15/03 @ MIL) and Kyuji Fujikawa (4/1/13 @ PIT).

The last Cubs rookie to hurl consecutive complete games was Rich Hill in 2006 (September 16 vs. Cincinnati, September 22 at Cincinnati). Hill finished with two complete games in 2006, making him the first Cubs rookie with more than one complete game in a season since Frank Castillo tossed four in 1991.

The best career start record-wise for a Cubs pitcher is 8-0, recorded by King Cole in 1910 and Carlos Silva in 2010. The worst start belongs to Chris Volstad, who began his Cubs career 0-9 in 2012.

On July 17, 1918, Lefty Tyler pitched a Cubs-record 21 innings in a route-going 2-1 win against Philadelphia. He gave up 13 hits and one walk while striking out eight.

Three years earlier, on June 17, 1915, reliever George "Zip" Zabel was called into a game against Brooklyn with two out in the top of the 1st inning at West Side Grounds. He had to pitch 18.1 innings before earning the win, as the Cubs won 4-3 in the 19th inning.

GETTING OFF TO A GOOD START

Jake Arrieta (9-0) and Jason Hammel (5-0) each won their first five decisions of 2016, becoming the first Cubs starters to do so since Carlos Silva started 8-0 in 2010. Arrieta's nine-straight wins to open the campaign was the longest streak since Ken Holtzman also went 9-0 to open the 1967 season. The franchise record for most-consecutive wins to open a season by a starting pitcher belongs to Jim McCormick, who started 16-0 in 1886.

INNINGS EATERS

The last time the Cubs had five 200.0-plus inning pitchers was in 1904. Jake Weimer led the staff with 307.0 innings of work, followed by Buttons Briggs (277.0), Carl Lundgren (242.0), Bob Wicker (229.0) and Mordecai Brown (212.1).

GOING THE DISTANCE

The last time Cubs pitchers went the distance in three consecutive contests took place during the 1976 campaign – when Rick Reuschel (September 18), Ray Burris (September 19) and Steve Renko (September 21) did the honors.

The last time the Cubs had three straight complete-game shutouts took place in May 1969. Ken Holtzman started the streak May 11 with an 8-0 victory over San Francisco. Fergie Jenkins then blanked San Diego 2-0 on May 12. Dick Selma finished the stretch with a three-hitter in a 19-0 victory over the Padres May 13.

HISTORICAL INFORMATION

HIGHLIGHTS IN CUBS HISTORY

1876: The first game in the history of the Chicago National League franchise took place April 25, as Albert Spalding pitched the first N.L. shutout in the Chicago White Stockings' 4-0 win at Louisville ... Spalding also had the first hit in franchise history, while center fielder Paul Hines scored the first run on a throwing error in the second inning.

© The first home run in N.L. history was hit by the White Stockings' Ross Barnes on May 2 in a 15-9 victory in Cincinnati.

© The creation of the N.L. was credited largely to William A. Hulbert, who held the dual role of league president and Chicago president until 1882 ... with the assistance of manager Albert Spalding, Hulbert drafted the N.L. constitution and by-laws in 1875.

© Of the eight original charter members of the National League, only the Cubs have operated continuously in the same city.

1883: Chicago set major league records when it scored 18 runs and collected 18 hits in September 6's seventh frame ... the Cubs went on to beat Detroit 26-6.

1903: In October, the Cubs and White Sox held the first of the semi-annual "City Series" ... at points from 1903-1942, the two teams met following the regular season for a crosstown set as long as neither team made the Fall Classic.

© In the inaugural year, the Chicago teams ended with seven wins apiece ... what would have been the deciding game was canceled due to weather.

1906: The Chicago club went 116-36 in setting major league records for wins in a season and winning percentage (.763).

© The Cubs and White Sox met in the first and only all-Chicago Fall Classic ... it also marked the first time two teams from the same city met in the World Series ... the Cubs fell to the White Sox, four games to two.

1916: The Cubs moved into Weeghman Park (now known as Wrigley Field).

1921: William Wrigley Jr. became the Cubs' majority owner.

© Wrigley's involvement with the team began in 1916, when a 10-man syndicate led by Charles Weeghman purchased the club from Charles Taft ... in 1919, Wrigley purchased Weeghman's shares to have controlling interest.

© After Wrigley's death in 1932, his interest passed to his son, Philip K. Wrigley ... upon Philip's death in 1977, principal interest in the ballclub was left to his son, William Wrigley.

© The sale of the club to Tribune Company in 1981 ended the longest continuous operation of a franchise by the same family in one city.

1924: The first Cubs game was broadcast on the radio ... Hal Totten transmitted the April 23 home opener from the Wrigley Field roof ... Chicago routed the Cardinals 12-1 in the contest.

1930: Hack Wilson established a M.L. record by driving in 191 runs while hitting 56 home runs – a club/N.L. record that lasted until 1998.

© The largest crowd to see a baseball game at Wrigley Field (51,556) took place June 27 vs. Brooklyn ... of that number, 30,476 were Ladies' Day guests and 1,332 were passholders.

PHILLING UP THE SCOREBOARD

On August 25, 1922, the Cubs topped Philadelphia 26-23 at Cubs Park in the highest-scoring game in major league history. The teams combined for 51 hits, 23 walks and 25 men left-on-base. A 10-run second inning followed by a 14-run outburst in the fourth helped the Cubs build a 25-6 lead. Philadelphia fought back and had the bases full when the last out was recorded in the ninth inning.

On May 17, 1979, Dave Kingman hit three homers and drove in six runs, but Philadelphia's Mike Schmidt answered with two homers — including the game-winner in the 10th — to give the Phillies a 23-22 victory in baseball's highest-scoring game since the 1922 affair. The Cubs had trailed 21-9, but rallied and tied the score in the eighth.

COMPLETELY OFFENSIVE

The Cubs swept Pittsburgh in a three-game set at Wrigley Field, September 13-15, 2019, outscoring the Pirates, 47-15 ... the 47 runs marked the most by the Cubs in a three-game series in over 125 years since plating 48 runs, July 23-25, 1894 at the West Side Grounds, also against the Pirates ... the Cubs scored at least 14 runs in each game, becoming the first N.L. club to do so in three-straight games since the 1930 Cubs.

The Cubs batted .419 (49-for-117) with nine doubles, a triple, 14 homers, 15 walks, a .496 OBP and an .872 slugging percentage in the three-game series against Pittsburgh ... the 14 homers set a franchise record for a three-game series.

The Cubs advanced into postseason play for the first time since 1945 after winning the National League Eastern Division title with a 96-65 record ... the Cubs then won the first two games of the NLCS at Wrigley Field before dropping the final three contests in San Diego.

- © The Cubs hit five homers and had 16 hits in routing the Padres 13-0 in Game One, as winning pitcher Rick Sutcliffe allowed two hits in 7.0 innings and homered ... behind Steve Trout, the Cubs then won the second game 4-2.
- © San Diego routed the Cubs in Game Three, then won the fourth game 7-5 behind Steve Garvey's five-RBI contest.
- © In the decisive fifth game, Leon Durham's two-run homer and Jody Davis' solo shot gave the Cubs a 3-0 lead entering the bottom of the sixth inning ... San Diego, though, scored twice in the sixth and four times in the seventh to advance to the World Series.

Atlanta pitching proved to be too much for the Cubs, who needed a Wild Card tie-breaker contest against San Francisco to qualify for the playoffs ... the Cubs were held to just four runs, 17 hits and a .181 average ... Braves pitchers recorded a 1.29 ERA.

- Cubs pitchers limited Atlanta's offense to just a .228 average ... Cubs starters gave up only four earned runs in 20.0 innings.
- Two days before the start of the Division Series – on September 28 at Wrigley Field – the Cubs earned a spot in the playoffs as the National League's Wild Card team after beating San Francisco 5-3 ... Steve Trachsel took a no-hitter into the seventh inning, Gary Gaetti belted a two-run homer, pinch-hitter Matt Mieske singled in two runs and Rod Beck picked up the save as the Cubs advanced to the playoffs.

For the first time since winning the 1908 World Series, the Cubs were victorious in a postseason series ... as such, the Cubs qualified for their first trip to the National League Championship Series since 1989.

- The affair was only the third "final and decisive" postseason contest in Cubs history ... the club had dropped Game Seven of the 1945 World Series to Detroit and Game Five of the 1984 NLCS to San Diego.
- With two victories, Kerry Wood became the first Cub to pick up a pair of wins in a postseason series since Hank Borowy in the 1945 World Series ... he fanned 18 batters in the two starts, surpassing the club-record 17 recorded by Hippo Vaughn in the 1918 World Series ... in the series-opening 4-2 victory, he had two hits – and drove in the game-winning run with a two-run double in the Cubs four-run sixth inning.
- In Game Three (a 3-1 Cubs win), Mark Prior went the distance – allowing two hits while fanning seven ... he was the first Cubs pitcher to throw a complete game in the postseason since Claude Passeau accomplished the feat in Game Three of the 1945 World Series ... in the process, he also became the second hurler to throw a two-hitter in a Division Series affair, joining Nolan Ryan (October 6, 1981).

Five outs — that's all that stood between the Cubs 3-0 lead in Game Six and their first trip to the Fall Classic since 1945 ... before two of those outs could be recorded, Florida stunned the Cubs with an eight-run eighth-inning rally.

- By the time the fateful eighth was over, the Marlins had sent 12 batters to the plate ... the eight runs were the most in an NLCS inning since St. Louis plated nine in the second inning October 13, 1985, against Los Angeles.
- There was another day for the Cubs, however ... in Game Seven, they found themselves down 3-0 early before rallying to tie the score in the bottom of the second – including a two-run shot by Kerry Wood ... his roundtripper was just the fourth by a pitcher in NLCS history – and the first since the Cubs Rick Sutcliffe went deep in Game One of the 1984 NLCS vs. San Diego ... the Cubs then went ahead 5-3 in the third inning on Moises Alou's two-run homer ... from that point, though, the Cubs were held to just one hit – a Troy O'Leary pinch homer in the seventh off Josh Beckett – as the Marlins pushed across six runs from the fifth through seventh innings.
- In the process, the Marlins became the fourth team in League Championship Series history to overcome a three-games-to-one deficit in advancing to the World Series.

In the team's first postseason appearance since 2003, the Cubs were swept by the Arizona Diamondbacks, three-games-to-none, in the National League Division Series ... Chicago batted just .194 (19-for-98) in the series with six runs scored ... Chicago batted just .087 (2-for-23) with runners in scoring position while Geovany Soto hit the club's lone home run - a two-run blast in Game Two off Arizona's Doug Davis.

- © Soto's long ball made him just the second Cubs rookie to ever homer in a postseason contest ... previously, Cubs rookie Frank Demaree homered off the Yankees Johnny Allen on October 2, 1932, in the fourth game of the 1932 World Series at Wrigley Field..
- © The Cubs dropped Game One, 3-1, as Carlos Zambrano went up against Arizona's Brandon Webb ... the game was tied 1-1 before the Diamondbacks scored two runs off Carlos Marmol in the seventh.
- © Chicago enjoyed its only lead of the series when Soto's two-run homer in the second inning of Game Two at Chase Field gave the Cubs an early 2-0 ... Arizona rebounded for four runs in the bottom half of the inning and would hold the lead for the remainder of the game.
- © In Game Three, the Diamondbacks touched Rich Hill for three runs in 3.0 innings of work as Chicago went 0-for-9 with runners in scoring position.

WRIGLEY FIELD INFORMATION

HISTORY OF WRIGLEY FIELD

The 2020 season marks the 105th year of Cubs baseball at Wrigley Field and the 107th season of professional baseball ... opened in 1914, Wrigley Field is the second-oldest ballpark in the major leagues behind Boston's Fenway Park (1912).

- Originally known as Weeghman Park, Wrigley Field was built on the grounds once occupied by a seminary.
- Weeghman Park was the home of Chicago's entry into the Federal League and was the property of Charles H. Weeghman ... the club was known as both the Federals and the Whales.
- The cost of building Weeghman Park, which had a seating capacity of 14,000, was estimated at $250,000 ... the infield and outfield consisted of more than 4,000 yards of soil and four acres of bluegrass.
- The first major league game at the ballpark took place April 23, 1914, with the Federals defeating Kansas City 9-1 ... the first homer in ballpark history was hit by Federals catcher Art Wilson – a two-run shot in the second inning off Kansas City's Chief Johnson.
- When the Federal League folded for financial reasons after the 1915 campaign, Weeghman purchased the Cubs from the Taft family of Cincinnati and moved the club to the two-year-old ballpark at the corners of Clark and Addison streets.
- The first National League game at the ballpark was played April 20, 1916, when the Cubs beat the Cincinnati Reds 7-6 in 11 innings ... a bear cub was in attendance at the game.
- The park became known as Cubs Park in 1919, following the resignation of Charles Weeghman as team president at the December 1918 board of directors meeting - shortly after William Wrigley Jr. had assumed the title as largest stockholder in the club ... in 1926, with Mr. Wrigley owning more than 50 percent of the team stock and having purchased the land of the park in 1924, the field was renamed Wrigley Field.

HISTORIC MOMENTS AT THE FRIENDLY CONFINES:

- Babe Ruth's "called shot," when Ruth allegedly pointed to a bleacher location during Game 3 of the 1932 World Series ... Ruth then hit Charlie Root's next pitch for a homer.
- Gabby Hartnett's famous "Homer in the Gloamin'" September 28, 1938, off Pittsburgh's Mace Brown.
- The great May 2, 1917, pitching duel between Jim "Hippo" Vaughn and the Reds' Fred Toney ... both Vaughn and Toney threw no-hitters for 9.0 innings before Cincinnati's Jim Thorpe (of Olympic fame) drove in the only run in the 10th inning ... Toney finished with a no-hitter.
- Ernie Banks' 500th career home run May 12, 1970, vs. Atlanta's Pat Jarvis.
- Pete Rose's 4,191st career hit, which tied him with Ty Cobb for the most hits in baseball history ... Rose singled off Reggie Patterson September 8, 1985.
- Kerry Wood's 20-strikeout affair in 1998.
- Sammy Sosa's 60th home runs in 1998, 1999 and 2001.
- Greg Maddux's 3,000th career strikeout July 26, 2005.
- Tom Glavine's 300th career victory August 5, 2007.
- The Cubs clinched the N.L. Pennant at Wrigley Field, October 22, 2016, defeating the Dodgers, 5-0 in NLCS Game Six.
- The 1947, 1962 and 1990 All-Star Games.

BLEACHERS AND SCOREBOARD: The Wrigley Field bleachers and center-field scoreboard were constructed in 1937 when the outfield area was renovated to provide improved and expanded seating ... the original scoreboard remains intact.

- The score-by-innings and the pitchers' numbers are changed by hand ... the numbers signaling batter, ball, strike and out, along with "H" and "E" – to signify hit and error – are eyelets.
- No batted ball has ever hit the center-field scoreboard ... two baseballs barely missed – a homer hit onto Sheffield Avenue (right-center) by Bill Nicholson in 1948, and one hit by Roberto Clemente onto Waveland Avenue (left-center) in 1959.
- One of the traditions of Wrigley Field is the flying of a flag bearing a "W" or an "L" atop the scoreboard after a game ... a white flag with a blue "W" indicates a victory; a blue flag with a white "L" denotes a loss.

IVY WALLS: The original vines were purchased and planted by Bill Veeck in September 1937 ... Veeck strung bittersweet from the top of the wall to the bottom, then planted the ivy at the base of the wall.

LIGHTS: Wrigley Field added lights in 1988, becoming the final major league stadium to hold night games.

- The first night game took place August 8 against Philadelphia, with Rick Sutcliffe on the mound, but was rained out in the fourth inning.
- The first official night game occurred August 9 vs. New York, when the Cubs defeated the Mets 6-4.
- The Cubs enter the 2020 season having played 750 home night contests (going 404-346).

WRIGLEY FIELD CONSTRUCTION PROJECTS:

- During the winter of 1984, a new home clubhouse was completed under the third base stands ... the visitor's clubhouse was renovated in 1990.
- In 1989, a new press box and broadcast booths were constructed in the upper deck directly behind home plate ... private boxes were constructed on the mezzanine level, where the press box was formerly.
- Following the 2005 season, the Cubs expanded the bleachers, adding a restaurant in the batter's eye and a window to Sheffield Avenue in right field.
- In the winter of 2007, Wrigley Field underwent a major field renovation project to remove the field's crown, install an intricate drainage system and create a new playing surface.
- Prior to the 2010 season, the back of the centerfield scoreboard was fully renovated for the first time since it was installed in 1937 ... restrooms were remodeled and fitted with new fixtures, a new viewing plaza was created adjacent to the indoor batting cage to provide fans the opportunity to watch batting practice and the PNC Club was added to the mezzanine suites down the left field line.
- Prior to the 2012 campaign, the right-field Budweiser bleachers were transformed to include the Budweiser Patio ... the area provided fans with a rooftop experience inside the ballpark, and added a 75-foot LED board just above the right field fence.
- The long-awaited restoration and expansion of Wrigley Field, known as The 1060 Project, is set to be officially completed with a rededication ceremony held on April 19, 2020 ... this multi-year upgrade preserved the ballpark's beauty, charm and historic features that fans have cherished for more than a century, while updating and improving the iconic ballpark for fans, players and the community.
- The 1060 Project, which started at the conclusion of the 2014 baseball season, included structural upgrades, improved player facilities, new fan amenities, outfield signage, two video boards, new premier clubs, expanded concessions, new and improved restroom facilities, and much more ... for more information on The 1060 Project, please visit www.wrigleyfield.com.

SPRING INFORMATION

SLOAN PARK — MESA, ARIZONA

Spring Training 2020 marks the Cubs seventh year at their current complex in Mesa, Ariz., highlighted by Sloan Park - the largest ballpark by capacity in the Cactus League ... Sloan Valve Company, the official water efficiency partner of the Cubs, became the naming rights partner in January of 2015.

© Sloan Park has a seating capacity of 15,000 ... 9,200 in the seating bowl, 4,200 in the general admission outfield lawn berm and 1,600 in the suite level ... nearly 2,000 more than the Cubs' previous Spring Training home at HoHoKam Stadium ... the ballpark features a viewing area in left field called the Budweiser Rooftop, a third and first base party deck area, a kids area and a multi-purpose plaza area.

© The field dimensions are similar to Wrigley Field in layout, but generally slightly deeper due to the Arizona environment:

	Sloan Park (Mesa)	Wrigley Field (Chicago)
Left Field Line	360 feet	355 feet
Left Center	366 feet	368 feet
Center Field	410 feet	400 feet
Right Center	398 feet	368 feet
Right Field Line	360 feet	353 feet

© The Cubs complex features 16 batting tunnels, including 12 indoors, and 22 pitching mounds. The former Fitch Park, where the Cubs previously began Spring Training prior to the start of the Cactus League schedule, had eight pitching mounds and four batting tunnels.

- Additionally, the complex features four practice fields, two major league fields and a half-sized field.

© The 70,000-square foot Nike Performance Center houses Cubs offices, both major and minor league clubhouses, a 7,500-square foot workout facility, training facilities including a hydrotherapy room and a 120-seat theater.

© The 142-acre Spring Training complex is nearly twice as large as the 79 combined acres between Fitch Park and HoHoKam Stadium.

© The complex, located by the 101 and 202 interchange, houses both the Cubs major league and minor league spring operations, and is utilized year-round by the organization.

Sloan Park welcomed 250,893 fans in 18 games in 2019, the second-highest total in Spring Training history, trailing only the 251,899 guests at Sloan Park in 2017 ... both of those seasons featured two additional exhibition games outside of the Cactus League (2017 — vs. Team Japan and Team Italy; 2019 — vs. Boston twice) ... the Cactus League attendance mark was set by the Cubs in 2017 (226,933).

© The Sloan Park average attendance of 15,129 in 2017 surpassed the previous mark of 15,078 set by the Cubs in 2016.

© Sloan Park holds the single-game Cactus League attendance mark of 16,069 set, March 3, 2019 vs. the White Sox ... the Sloan Park single-game attendance record is 16,100, set March 26, 2019 vs. Boston.

The Cubs have drawn 60 crowds of at least 15,000 people to Sloan Park since it opened in 2014. The top five crowds are listed below:

Date	Opponent	Score	Attendance
3/25/2019	Boston*	W, 3-2	16,100
3/3/2019	Chicago (A.L.)	W, 13-4	16,069
3/20/2019	Los Angeles (N.L.)	T, 4-4	16,061
3/17/2019	Colorado	L, 7-2	16,028
3/26/2019	Boston*	W, 16-7	15,913

Not a Cactus League game*

The Cubs return to Mesa for their 42nd-consecutive Spring Training, the longest active streak in the Cactus League ... before moving into their new park in 2014, the Cubs had spent the previous 17 Cactus League seasons at HoHoKam Stadium and Fitch Park ... all told, 2020 marks the Cubs' 56th season of Spring Training in Mesa (1952-65, 1979-present).

© In 2010, Mesa voters approved $84 million to construct a baseball stadium, training and practice facility in Mesa, Ariz. for the Chicago Cubs ... the city contributed $15 million for related infrastructure work, and as part of the agreement with the City of Mesa, the Chicago Cubs committed their Spring Training games to the site for the next 30 years.

© Mesa is the second-largest city in the Phoenix metropolitan area and the third-largest city in Arizona ... Mesa is located southeast of Phoenix and Scottsdale.

- With a population of more than 480,000, Mesa ranks as one of the fastest growing cities in the United States (among those with populations of at least 200,000) and the 36th-largest city in the country — bigger than Atlanta and Miami.
- Mesa was founded in January 1878 and was incorporated in July 1883 ... the area of the city is 128 square miles.
